

Dementia Caregivers' Book Club

Come discuss a fantastic book with fellow caregivers who understand what you're going through.

Starting May 31, 2020.

We will be reading Loving Someone Who Has Dementia by Pauline Boss, PhD, discussing a chapter or two each week. This group is open to any caregiver of someone living with a type of dementia. Come to as many weeks as you are able, share your thoughts or just listen to others.

The first 12 registrants will have a free copy of the book mailed to their home!
